

Darcie Castleberry, MBA, SHRM-CP

Darcie currently works for the Oregon Department of Forestry as the Southwest District Business Manager. Prior to this position she held 2 consecutive positions as a Chief Financial Officer with the Oregon Association of Realtors® and the Greater Albuquerque Association of Realtors®. Darcie has a 30-year career in accounting and human resources and had her own consulting company for several years in lower Alabama. During that time she held the Treasurer position with a non-profit Board of Directors.

Darcie earned her BS in Business Management and her MBA at Western Governors University. She has been a member of SHRM since 2017 and a member of the RV-SHRM since the Spring of 2019.

As a native Oregonian, Darcie's love for the outdoors is ongoing. She along with her husband and their dog (Miss Sarah who runs the home) actively explore mountain trails, the amazing coastline as well as the many rivers and lakes that make up Oregon's beautiful landscape.
