

Joanna Quirke is the Senior HR Generalist for Cummins Battery Systems in North America. She began her HR career working for Lithia Automotive in 2006 as a Service and Parts Personnel Recruiter. In 2009 she started work as a Staffing Manager then Office Manager for a local staffing agency, Hire Calling. In 2011 she was recruited to work for Brammo Motorsports as an Admin and HR Assistant. Joanna remained with the Brammo employee group during and after Brammo was acquired by Cummins Inc. late in 2017. Cummins has opened global doors of exposure to all aspects of the HR function enabling Joanna to develop within her current role of Senior Line HR Generalist as well as gain exposure to HR Leadership roles, benefits, HR operations excellence and HRIS responsibilities.

Joanna holds her BS in Human Communication from Southern Oregon University, 2006. She also earned her Certificate in Management of Human Resources, 2006. Joanna earned her SHRM-Certified Professional (SHRM-CP) in the summer of 2019.

This is Joanna's second year serving on the Rogue Valley SHRM board and is looking forward to furthering contributions as we all navigate the unforeseen adaptations our world is adjusting to as COVID remains present in our lives.
