

Nicole Erlan, PHR, SHRM-CP helps turn potential into success through learning, leadership development, and coaching for accelerated growth and performance as Leadership Development Manager at Lithia Motors, Inc. Having a broad range of experience in human resources, more recently, Nicole has found passion in the realm of learning & development. With an MBA degree from San Jose State University, a BA in Economics from University of California, San Diego, Nicole is a lifelong learner currently working on a Professional Certified Coach (ICF) credential through the College of Executive Coaching.

